Subject: Stacy Campbell Dominic

The last time I was before the commission I asked the commission the mayor for you all to replace Stacy Dominic Campbell from LHA commission board. Some of you city commissioned had a problem with me saying that and you all said that we need to wait and see the outcome. Well the outcome has come. The decision has been made. The county commissions have done their job and so she no longer employed at careerSource Polk. The problem we're still having is why are you all afraid to do your job? We have a city attorney that won't stand for what's right and he says that he knows the law well obvious to me that the Commission or the county know the law better than you all do. Again, what is the problem of removing her from Lakeland Housing authority, Commission board and the other three that I requested? God is going to have the last say the way you all treat his peoples
